Fenway Green Roof Block Party

www.350.org is an international movement aimed at reducing CO₂ and getting us back to 350 parts per million, the level of carbon in the atmosphere that is sustainable.

You're Invited!

What: The Boston Latin School Youth Climate Action Network (BLS Youth CAN www.blsyouthcan.org) is hosting a Green Roof Block Party/350 action! There will be music, food, and a presentation by the Alliance for Climate Education!

<http://www.climateeducation.org/> Join Mass Power Shift at the end of the day for a trip to Beacon Hill to make lawmakers hear the call for 100% clean energy in ten years. <http://www.masspowershift.org/>

Who: Youth CAN groups, green student groups at colleges and universities in the Fenway area, and community youth organizations are invited to host a table displaying information about your group and your green efforts. Come to the Fenway area block party and network with others taking action to help get us back to 350! Bring goods to sell and raise funds to support your green efforts!

When: Saturday, October 24, 2009 11 AM – 2 PM

Where: Boston Latin School

78 Avenue Louis Pasteur, Boston MA 02115

Why: Taking action together helps get us back to 350 and it's a fun way to kick off the year for Youth CAN and the New Fenway Green Roof Student Coalition!
